

How Mossad Bait Children

They are extremely callous. They are absolutely immoral.

They are diabolically efficient.

When they target a person for destruction, they spare nobody that has even the slightest connection to their subject.

They go after the spouse, kids, relatives, friends, acquaintances, colleagues and the family pets.

Mossad is able to do this because they employ a lot of stalkers to study someone's routine, and associations.

I have had problems with Mossad for quite sometime.

Even then, I never expected them to go after my kids.

But they did.

I do not want to repeat what my young child told me, and for obvious reasons I do not want to write about the satanic stuff Mossad did to an innocent child.

Instead I will use an analogy to show how evil Mossad is.

You come home from work quite exhausted.

You place your phone on the table like you always do every day and proceed to the bedroom.

You return after about an hour or so only to realise the phone has disappeared. The only other person in the house is your ten-year-old kid who has no clue as to the whereabouts of the phone.

You continue searching for the phone in all places you think it might be, even though you are certain you placed it on the table next to the couch.

Finally, you find it in the kitchen sink, wet, dirty and totally useless.

You ask your kid, 'why did you throw my phone in the sink?' You expect some explanation about some accident, but your child firmly denies being responsible.

You don't know what to think.

A few days later, you buy another phone.

A week later, you find it in the kitchen sink, wet, dirty and totally unusable.

Your child totally denies being responsible, yet you are certain he must have done it.

So, you buy another phone and set a trap.

Finally, you catch him in the act.

But your problem is not over. You cannot think about why he would do it. Your child has always been well-behaved and obedient.

'Someone must have made him do it', you tell yourself. 'But who? And why? Why would my kid risk all the possible consequences if I found out? Why would he want to hurt me?'

You cajole the child, you plead, you threaten, until finally you find out that he did it believing it okay to do so. He is very surprised that you are angry at him for doing that.

Mossad has brainwashed and used your own kid against you.

That is how wicked Mossad is.

The person they will use against you, they will first embed their associates to that person, even if the person is only a child.

The Mossad associates use that opportunity to brainwash the child, so the child thinks what they are doing to you or against you is somehow good for you, or necessary for the common good.

And the child is also convinced that it is in everyone's interest for their actions to remain secret.

Mossad Criminal Tactics

Welcome to Mossad's luciferian tactics.

They are:

1. So bizarre, you would never think it possible. You are caught off-guard.
2. So unbelievable that other people would, well, not believe it if you told them.

In my blog, I have explained how my problem with Mossad started, and the current status of this very strange situation.

Israel's Mossad is not what many people think it is. It is merely an over-glorified criminal organisation.

What kind of spy agency would attack someone's small children just because they don't like the parent?

If anything I have written here, or on my other blog is not true, then why hasn't Mossad or Israel filed a libel suit against me?

If the people I have named in my blog as working for Mossad while masquerading as public servants - including Dr D.J. Russell-Weisz (David Russell-Weisz) - do not indeed work for Mossad, why haven't they filed a libel suit against me?
